Gender Diversity is Good for Business
AWA Tasmania: Showcasing Successful Strategies for Diversity
An initiative of the Channeling Change Program, presented by the Tasmanian Branch

Is your organisation enjoying the benefits of a diverse workforce? Studies show gender diversity is good for business by promoting innovation, increasing employee engagement and improving financial results.

Whether you are leading the way in gender diversity and want to share your success stories, or you’re embracing change and want to learn from the experience of others, this event is open to everyone – male, female, leader or learner.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Join us over a delicious two course lunch for an inspiring keynote address from Sally Darke, who will share insights from her extensive experience with KPMG and board roles including TasWater and TasPorts and as Chairperson of the Tasmanian Community Fund and Scotch Oakburn College.

This will be followed by an open panel discussion about what defines diversity, particularly gender diversity in the workplace, and panellist’s stories showcasing successful strategies and benefits of a gender diverse workplace.

EVENT MC
Our event MC will be Lindsey Brown, MD of Foundry Associates and President of AWA Victoria. Lindsey provoked much discussion and interest in gender diversity with her keynote presentation at the State Conference last year and we are delighted to welcome her back to host this event.

PANELLISTS INCLUDE
Chris French, Operations Manager and Diversity Champion for GHD Victoria
Donna Brown, Environment and Stakeholder Manager with Hydro Tasmania
Dr Catherine Wheatley, CEO of aid organisation Water for a Village.
